

THE POPE'S BLESSING FOR GREAT CROWD IN THE RAIN

ENGAGEMENT

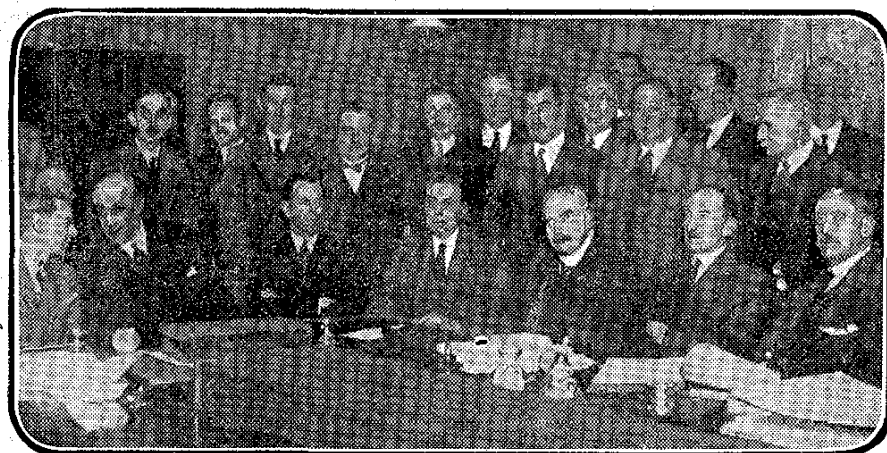

A great crowd standing under umbrellas in the Piazza San Pietro at Rome to receive the blessing of the Pope from the balcony (x) of St. Peter's Cathedral after the signing of the treaty of reconciliation between the Papacy and the Italian State. This picture appeared in the later editions of the "Daily Mirror" yesterday.—("Daily Mirror" photograph.)

This portrait of Miss Violette Colingwood, a young botanist, brought about her engagement to Dr. Samuel Glasstone, who saw it in the photographer's studio.

Dr. Samuel Glasstone, who, on seeing Miss Colingwood's portrait, asked for an introduction. He is a Lecturer at Sheffield University. They are to be married in June.

GRAND PRIX RACE.—The Organising Committee of the Irish International Grand Prix motor race, to be held in Phoenix Park in July, meeting in Dublin. Mr. K. Lee Guinness advised on alterations to the course.—("Daily Mirror.")

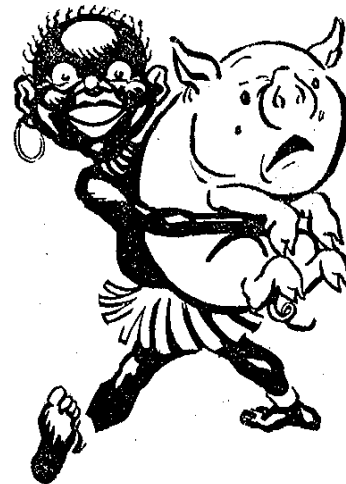

MUSICAL FESTIVAL.—Mr. R. Stanley Drear, Mrs. Tobias Matthay (centre), judge of verse-speaking, and Mrs. James Harper at the Belfast musical festival, competitions in which are lasting ten days.—("Daily Mirror" photograph.)

PIGS AREN'T THE PYGMY'S BEST BREAKFAST

THE best breakfast for little folk—and big folk, too—is Scott's Porage Oats.

Here you have the world's best Oats—for everyone knows they grow in Scotland. And for nourishment, body-building properties and flavour you couldn't rival Scott's Porage Oats anywhere.

Yet, weight for weight, they actually cost less than the imported oats. Be sure you see "Scott's Porage Oats" on your packet. You are sure then of getting—

SCOTLAND'S BEST

2lb 10^d 1lb 5^d

FULL WEIGHT WITHOUT PACKET

COOKS IN 5 MINUTES

A. & R. SCOTT, Ltd., Colinton, Midlothian, Scotland.